

Metropolitan Manchester

One of the coolest cities in Britain, Manchester is a truly contemporary metropolis. Its mix of history, culture and fashion make it one of the most sought after cities to visit, not only in the North of England, but within the whole of the UK.

Bridgewater Hall

Manchester is renowned as a true 24 hour city, with a wide selection of chic to chill out bars and clubs to enjoy, or, if cuisine is more your scene then the city's diverse culture provide you with a huge range of worldwide delicacies to enjoy. Indeed, it has been said that you can dine out for 30 days without eating the same type of cuisine twice!

With shopping to rival the capital, Manchester is home to many chic boutiques and designer department stores, such as Harvey Nichols and the increasingly popular Selfridges. The Northern Quarter provides an eclectic mix of shopping, from cool independent boutiques to interior designers, vintage clothing and young hip music brands.

Harvey Nichols

And Manchester also offers so much more. Boasting landmark buildings, both modern and historic, Manchester is a true architectural showpiece where old and new combines to provide a city of immense beauty and innovation.

Cityscape

No visit to Manchester would be complete without a trip to "The Theatre of Dreams" – Old Trafford, home to world renowned Manchester United. Of course, you may be a blue and Manchester is also home to another famous football club – Manchester City.

Old Trafford

With the 3rd largest airport in the UK and with an outstanding road and rail network, Manchester is easily accessible from around the country and the world – making it the ideal location for your conference to be held.