

About ISA Membership

ISA-The Instrumentation, Systems, and Automation Society is a 39,000-member international, nonprofit, technical organization. By joining ISA, you can become part of the premier global society serving i.s.&a. professionals.

As an ISA Member, you will connect with professionals and information that can strengthen your career now and carry you to a successful future.

Get more from your career with the technical resources, professional development, and networking opportunities available from ISA.

STANDARD FEATURES

Included in every membership.

InTech magazine—Read hot-off-the-press technical news delivered right to your mailbox each month. InTech keeps you up-to-date on breaking technical news and products.

ISA News & Views—A new monthly publication designed for you! Read about the society people, events and news that make a difference to you. An open forum for member expression and communication.

ISA Directory—Use this complete guide to manufacturers to locate the technology products you need from flowmeters to fieldbus.

E-news & InTech news e-mail—Periodic e-mail information updates.

Discounts on ISA products & services—Save money on the ISA products you want and need.

Inclusion in online Member Directory—Search and find other ISA Members.

ISA 2002—Members can attend the largest show in the industry in the Western Hemisphere FREE.

Local Section membership—Monthly Section meetings allow you to network with professionals in your area as well as receive the focused training and technological information you need to excel in your career.

ISA Standards—Unlimited online view-only access to all ISA Standards FREE!

ISA Membership Card

Voting Rights—Elect ISA officers and help determine the direction of the Society.

OPTIONAL FEATURES (No extra fee)

You can choose from among the following available at no additional charge.

Yourname@member.isa.org—E-mail address and e-mail forwarding service can organize your online life.

Motion Control—Get more focused technical and product information with this great publication available to members FREE!

ISAJobs.org—The place to look for employment opportunities in the instrumentation, control systems, and automation industries.

Society/Section/Committee positions—Become an ISA leader and receive exceptional training from ISA. Through practical, hands-on experience develop new skills that serve you throughout your professional life.

Professional recognition/awards—ISA confers several awards recognizing experience and service to the industry and society.

Special Member privileges—Obtain discounts for various types of insurance, car rentals, hotels, credit cards, etc.

Student Division bonus—One FREE Division membership from EACH of two Departments.

E-mail discussion list—Participate in technical listserves with colleagues and get answers, share insights and experiences, and more.

OPTIONAL FEATURES (Extra fee)

These features are available to all Members but require an additional annual fee.

Annual subscription to ISA Transactions—$70 annually is a $230 savings over the non-member price.

Division memberships—$5 annually for each Division. ISA's 21 technical Divisions offer inside access to breaking news in your industry and technical specialty. Division Members receive a publication coupon equal in value to the Division dues paid. Your membership pays for itself!

Airmail for InTech delivery—$120 annually (For Members outside of U.S., Europe, Canada, India, Central and South America, and Japan.)

ISA Standards Subscription—Online access to all ISA standards for only $25 per year!

ISA—The Instrumentation, Systems, and Automation Society